President's Message

Dear Members & Friends:

We look forward to an exciting 2012, and we, as an organization, seek to achieve the following goals:

- Continue to promote and develop a monthly CLE program with informative and entertaining lectures to provide the most enjoyable method of acquiring requisite CLE credits for both our Italo-American Members and our Member Friends.
- Strengthen our bond with our associated CLA organizations in neighboring counties through enhanced communication and jointly sponsored events.
- Enlighten and entertain all CLA Members with Italian cultural outings and programs.
- Cultivate newly admitted Italo-American attorneys as new Members, Officers, Directors and Committee participants.
- Enhance our Scholarship program with added promotion and fund-raising.
- Raise awareness of our organization through an active public relations campaign.

I ask the membership for suggestions and participation in the above referenced mission. Moreover, there is plenty of opportunity for any Member who expresses a desire to serve on a committee or to get involved in our organization. New people and new ideas are always welcome!

Our Annual Rapallo Award Luncheon on April 28, 2012, looks to be a blockbuster! There is much buzz about our Honoree, Judge Patricia DiMango, and this year's program and special attendees. Tables are being sought at an unprecedented rate. Please Email Steven Savva at SJSavvaPC@aol.com for details.

Our March Cultural Outing is guaranteed to entertain and educate with our guide, Wild Man Steve Brill. The Wild Man will teach us how to find local "wild edibles" with a focus on Italian Cuisine and how to identify other plants (some nice – some not so nice). The Wild Man has an interesting history with the NYC Parks Department (that's code for an arrest) which provided him with worldwide fame. Google or YouTube "Wild Man Steve Brill" to see the Wild Man on the Letterman Show, BBC World News and read hilarious articles about the "Weed Maven" in newspapers across our country to find out about the ironic resolution of his run-in with NYC Parks Commissioner Henry Stern.

Space is limited – Please RSVP ASAP or inquire to Andrew@MaggioLaw.com

Viva l'Italia!

Very truly yours,

Andrew Maggio Esq.
